Quantum Collective

ENERGETIC LANGUAGE

All things, from the smallest particles to the objects we see, are in constant motion because everything vibrates. This motion starts at the atomic and subatomic levels, where particles like protons, neutrons, and electrons are always moving and vibrating with energy. This dynamic quality extends to everything in the universe, making even seemingly still objects or living cells vibrate with energy. This principle of vibration is a fundamental aspect of the dynamic and interconnected nature of the physical world.

The human body has subtle energy fields, also known as biofields, that can be measured and analyzed to gain insights into an individual's health. The foundational principle is derived from ancient healing traditions, such as acupuncture and Ayurveda, which recognize the existence of vital energy (vibration) that flows through the body, impacting physical, mental, and emotional well-being. These energy fields interconnect and are in constant flux.

TESTING

This test requires your physical samples. When your samples are tested we are communicating with your intelligence by sending signatures (informational patterns) that are output through the test plate and the response is measured through electrode signals.

We are not looking at medical or chemical quantitative values but at qualitative values.

The uniquely qualitative response emanated from your samples give us information into what disruptions are robbing the body's coherence.

We believe that when your body has the needed information and all parts of the energy flow are re-established it then has the ability to regain homeostasis and activate the innate healing capacities within.

Crossovers with the language of medicine are inevitable at times. The essential difference is our approach is that we recognize that disease(s) do not have their own identity. Standard medical diagnostic terms are just a convenient grouping of symptom experiences.

WE DO NOT DIAGNOSE AND WE DO NOT TREAT DISEASE.

We restore balance.

Demystifying This Report

This report is created as a way to help you (the client) understand the variety of signatures that can come up on the raw-data. It helps us make connections and solidify both the priority and process necessary to move forward. Each body is different, and based on your samples there might be specific elimination, drainage, and detoxification needs that are personal to your wellness goals. While you will most likely find incredible insights that correlate with prior data, this report remains non-diagnostic. This is an intake on your energetic state of health - or your vibrational coherence.

We have taken the complex data and extrapolated the most important information, in order to build you a picture. We have asked the body what we need to know to establish balance and activate the self-healing capacity.

No practitioner can do this work for you, so this process is an educational and uplifting one. We are not meant to focus on "what is wrong" but instead look at how we can get in more alignment with our deepest needs and desires.

For many, this looks like a re-connection to self.

For others, it looks like working past fears and boundaries.

This work is more than physical, supplemental.

It's not linear & it's not a miracle.

The miracle is your application and integration.

The Amplification Levels

Our Body Intelligence Scan and Emotional Terrain Scan provide two distinct amplification levels, dictating the layer in which the physical and emotional body want to start the healing process. The higher the amplification level, the more deep-rooted the imbalance.

There are a total of 15 amplification levels. Level one may indicate issues present at the acute or surface level where 15 might indicate a more chronic and/or traumatic disposition. Healing happens in layers as the amplification level measures what layers need to be priorities.

The amplification level does not serve as an indicator of overall health. No amplification supersedes another.

"Like the rings of a tree, healing happens in concentric layers, marking the passage of time and the growth of our inner strength." - Unknown

The Body Intelligence Roadmap

At Quantum Collective, we offer an energetic analysis designed to reveal hidden stressors and potential blockages hindering the healing process. Our approach is centered around promoting healing and ecological harmony to foster optimal well-being. As you walk through this information it's important to think about how the information might pertain to the macrocosm and the microcosm. By categorizing the information below, we develop a clear understanding of how to restore balance to the body. DRAINAGE & DETOXIFICATION

TOXINS

- Resonating Bacteria Signatures
 - A bacteria commonly found in the lower intestines. It is primarily transmitted through the consumption of contaminated food
 - Transmitted by hand-to-hand contact, or touching infected areas, especially in hospital settings.
- Resonating Mold/Yeast/Fungal Signatures
 - A genus of molds that are common contaminants of starchy foods (such as bread and potatoes) and grow in or on many plants and trees.
- Resonating Parasite Signatures
 - Transmission occurs when skin comes into contact with contaminated freshwater

ELIMINATION/DRAINAGE

- Homotoxicosis Level - Lymph Acute 1: supports systemic lymphatic drainage, elimination and excretion.

Secondary Imbalances

The secondary Imbalances are a glance at other areas that might need assistance at this level of support. You will get insights into functional markers such as amino acids, hormones, neurotransmitters, vitamins, minerals and more.

Amino Acids

Amino acids are the building blocks of proteins, essential for various biological processes in the human body.

ORNITHINE	Absorbed in the intestines, liver, kidney, and skeletal muscle. Improves athletic performance, wound healing
L-CARNITINE	Supports muscle weakness, heart, and liver. Critical connection to energy production. Great for workouts and helps burn fat.

Enzyme

Enzymes are biological molecules, typically proteins, that act as catalysts in various chemical reactions within the body.

MALTASE	Breaks down sugar or starch. Supports Digestive and Sugar
----------------	---

Fatty Acids

Fatty acids are essential building blocks of fats and lipids, which are crucial components of the human body and play various roles in physiological processes.

OMEGA 6	Plays a crucial role in brain function, and normal growth and development. Help stimulate skin and hair growth, maintain bone health, regulate metabolism, and maintain the reproductive system.

Secondary Imbalances

The secondary Imbalances are a glance at other areas that might need assistance at this level of support. You will get insights into functional markers such as amino acids, hormones, neurotransmitters, vitamins, minerals and more.

Hormones

Hormones are chemical messengers produced by various glands and organs in the endocrine system. They play a vital role in regulating and coordinating various physiological processes and functions throughout the body.

GLUCAGON	Glucagon is a hormone produced by the pancreas that helps increase blood glucose levels by promoting the release of stored glucose from the liver into the bloodstream.
PROGESTERONE	Produced in the adrenal glands, and imbalances may sometimes indicate adrenal stress

Neurochemistry

Neurochemicals are chemical substances that play a crucial role in the communication and functioning of the nervous system.

NOREPINEPHRINE	Anxiousness, low mood, fatigue and decreased focus and sleep, fatigue, attention difficulties, excess energy, poor cognitive function, immune issues.

Vitamins & Minerals

Vitamins are essential organic compounds that our bodies require in small amounts to carry out various vital functions. Minerals are essential nutrients that our bodies need in relatively small amounts to maintain proper physiological functions.

PYRIDOXINE (VITAMIN B-6)	Irritability, depression, edema, confusion, low energy, PMS, neuropathy
CALCIUM	Cardiovascular, blood pressure, brain function, bones, opens cells to glucose.
